

NEED HELP WITH YOUR DACA RENEWAL FEES?

If your current DACA expires in 2019, you should renew it now. These organizations provide financial assistance.

Anywhere in the U.S.

- 1 United We Dream
UWD has local partners across the country. Please find your location on the list and reach out to them for financial support. Click here.
- 2 GoFundMe
GoFundMe helps DACA recipients create a fundraiser to get the money for their renewal fee. Click here.

For Mexican Citizens

- 3 Your local Mexican Consulate
Mexican DACA recipients can contact their consulate for assistance. Click here for a list of local Mexican Consulates or call 855-463-6395.

For CA-residents

- 4 California Department of Social Services (CDSS)
Click here for organizations that provide DACA renewal assistance funded by CDSS.
- 5 Coalition for Humane Immigrant Rights of Los Angeles (CHIRLA)
Fee and application assistance available Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturday mornings starting at 8 am on a first come first served basis. Click here for address.

For NY-residents

- 6 MinKwon Center for Community Action
MinKwon schedules 1-on-1 appointments and hosts immigration clinics. They provide free Korean translation and interpretation for all immigration applications and cases. Click here.
- 7 NYC DREAMer Fund
The NYC DREAMer Fund makes grants to cover DACA renewal application fees for eligible NYC residents. Click here.